Collector Moore has appointed Whitney Long deputy collector at the port of Tenant's Harbor in place of Nelson Hall, removed. Deputy Collector Long took possession of the office Wednesday.

NOT SO.

Gen. Berry Hose Co. has not disbanded, notwithstanding the statements of certain city papers, that they intended so to do, and what is more the leading members of the company say that they will not leave the southern portion of our city unprotected. Good for the Berrys.

THAT TRAIN.

The management of the Knox & Lincoln railroad has finally decided to put on the Saturday evening train this year, and it will make its 1887 debut the latter portion of this month.

FRIGHTFUL POSSIBILITY.

What Would be the Result in Case of a Conflagration?

A well-known citizen visited the High School building the other day and found in the upper room, in Mr. McLain's school, 148 pupils. The only means of entrance and exit consists of a single wooden stairway, there being no fire escape of any description. What the terrible result would be in case of a fire in the hall or even an alarm of fire in the building, our readers can judge. It is at all events too frightful a possibility to remain a possibility much longer.

Serviceable fire escapes should be provided for our High School building as quick as they can be procured.

MARINE MATTERS.

Schooner Flavilla of Camden, which vessel has been at Vineyard Haven since May 11 with cargo of lime on fire, was burned Tuesday night. The sails, rigging etc., had been previously taken off. The Flavilla was lime-laden from Rockport. She was built at Barnstable, Mass., in 1846 and was a vessel of 73 tons burden.

Schooner Clara B. Kennard, Frenchman master, arrived at Dover, N. H., with a cargo of lime from this port. Her captain reports encountering a very severe gale between Boone Island and the Isle of Shoals Sunday, during which time the cargo took fire. All hands were set to work to throw seventy barrels of lime found to be on fire overboard.

KNOWING KAT.

She Prefers the Penobscot—The Prodigal Return.

About a year ago a strange cat took up her abode on steamer Penobscot. Some weeks ago the cat disappeared and when next seen she was domiciled on the Lewiston, when that boat made her first trip which ended with a broken shaft. The cat, however, was evidently not at home on the Lewiston and for the day or two that she resided there led a very discontented life.

At the end of the trip the Lewiston hauled up alongside the Penobscot, and at the first opportunity pussy leaped aboard her former home and scampered all through the boat in a most excited way, renewing old acquaintances. She is now aboard the Penobscot, and can't be tempted to again leave her chosen abode.

The staunch and speedy Rockland will be used as an excursion boat this summer.

PROGRESSING.

According to the Bee Richmond's new shoe-factory scheme is rapidly progressing. The sum of $6,407 has been taken in shares by the citizens, at $10 a share, the largest amount taken by one firm being 30 shares, by Clark & Milliken. Besides this amount $630 has been subscribed in labor by citizens who had no money to put into the enterprise.

VERY POPULAR.

Tramways seem to be growing in favor in this city. S. W. McLoon, not content with having a novel method of pumping his quarry, has the tramway fever too, and has a track running 150 feet from the top of his quarry to the dumping place. The rock is hoisted by steam cut of the quarry, emptied into patent cars, manufactured by Knowlton Bros., Camden, and run off down the track and dumped. It makes a great saving in time and labor.

THE CONCERT.

An audience of 325 assembled in the Church of Immanuel Thursday evening to hear what the majority of them conceded to be one of the most satisfactory and artistic concerts ever given in this city. Miss Sopha Hall, the contralto of the occasion, was in good voice and by her wonderful singing gained new laurels. She certainly is one of the most gifted and pleasing vocalists that ever sang in this city. In the "Alla Stella Confidente" she was at her best, while the exquisite playing of the obligato by Mr. Andrews added not a little to the beauty of the selection. Mr. Andrews in his difficult selection, De Beriot's Fantasia, completely captured the audience. Miss Hall and Mr. Andrews achieved great triumphs here.

Mrs. F. R. Spear, although suffering from a severe hoarseness, rendered her difficult selections in her usual artistic manner, and was warmly encored. Mrs. Shaw's organ solo was played with great skill, the capabilities of the excellent church organ being brought out to their fullest extent. Mrs. Shaw has few superiors in this state as an organist. Mr. Torrey's solo was a very pleasing one, and one well calculated to show his cultured and well-modulated voice. The piano quartet was a novelty, and a pleasing and well-played one. The accompaniments were, of course, perfectly played by Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Wight. The Topas Quartet selections evidently pleased the audience, and the Orpheus Club never played in better time and tune. The "Divertissement" for the two cornets was a very taking number. Messrs. Low and Hanly manipulating their instruments very artistically. The two selections with the full organ were indescribably grand, and those who attended will not soon forget the powerful effect.

The general opinion seems to be that the Rockland musical public should tender Mrs. Shaw a hearty vote of thanks for giving them such a musical treat.

ITS OWN PRESERVES.

It is a well-known fact that the proprietors and landlord of the Thorndike House take the best of care of their patrons, but it perhaps is not generally known that the house has a trout brook of its own. In the town of Union is a prolific trout brook which is known to but few. A young man whips this brook regularly with his flies in the interest of the Thorndike menu. Last week fifteen pounds of handsome trout were served up at the Thorndike, fresh from this sequestered brook.

THE OUTLOOK.

The Sharp trial in New York still languishes.

Maj. Ben: Perley Poore had forty years of newspaper work. The real beginning of his newspaper life was in 1848, when he was engaged as Washington correspondent of the Boston Atlas.

The Portland Advertiser is guilty of the following: "President Cleveland celebrated Memorial day by catching a string of trout. There is nothing in the inter-state commerce law to prevent him from making a large haul."

Says the Boston Record: "Castine, Mechanic Falls, Lincoln and Monroe erect soldiers' monuments this year. Portland is to have a $30,000 monument, and Belfast has raised money for the same purpose. No men who went to the war deserve such memorials more than the Maine volunteers."

The St. John Globe talks sense on the fishing question. Hear it:

The operations of the fishery cruisers this season are in marked contrast with the conduct of some of them last year. There have been no arrests, and little or no difficulty. It is now stated that special instructions have been issued to the cruisers to exercise the greatest leniency and caution in enforcing the fishery regulations this season. Had this been done last year a better feeling would have prevailed, while Canadian rights would have been as fully protected.

The Biddeford Journal shows no wonderful gift of prophecy in predicting in the near future "the wonderful development of the almost exhaustless resources of our magnificent seacoast line," but logically deduces that conclusion from what has already taken place. The strange part of the business is that Maine people are so reluctant to accept the prediction as true. The average Maine citizen looks upon the rusticator with a sort of pitying contempt to think that he should come "way down here" to enjoy life, but the average citizen hesitates not to pocket what summer visitor cash honestly comes in his way.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Lucretia Dolham of Vinalhaven has been the guest of Mrs. E. W. Berry.

Rev. William C. Barrows, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this city, has received a call from a church in Providence, R. I.

The Thomaston Herald says that Fred Hatch of this city has bought the ice business of A. O. Keen of Thomaston and will conduct it.

Oliver B. Lovejoy has a clerk's position in the postoffice. Mr. Lovejoy is a popular young man, well and favorably known here, and will always be found accommodating and faithful.

The Damariscotta Herald reports that Rev. C. V. Hanson finds himself compelled by his recent severe illness and continued illness in his family to resign his charge in Providence, R. I.

E. L. Veazle and F. A. Lovejoy of Waterville, quondam Rocklanders, were of a party of trouters who spent a few days at the lakes last week. They caught cart-loads of fine fish.

Rev. Dr. Shaw and wife of Waterville have been visiting friends in Liberty. Our Thomaston friends will remember Dr. Shaw, who at one time preached there. The old gentleman enjoys excellent health.

Dr. A. C. Heffenger, U. S. N., is in town in the interest of the Widow's Isle U. S. Sanitarium. Dr. Heffenger made very many friends here during his former stay, and all are pleased at his return here to duty.

Maynard Johnson, whose sickness in Boston we have previously reported, is so far recovered as to contemplate a removal home in a week or so. His mother, Mrs. C. A. Johnson, who has been with him, is now at home.

A Hudson, Mass., paper speaks in the most flattering terms of the appearance in a recent concert there of Mrs. Libby Clark Cushing, formerly of Thomaston. It appears from the notice that Mrs. Cushing has lost none of her artistic powers.

Beautifully engraved invitations have been received announcing the graduating exercises of Abbott Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, which occur Tuesday next. Misses Carrie T. Robinson and Lute Rokes of Thomaston are of the graduating class.

Capt. Fred H. Pearsons while in Shanghai, China, on a recent voyage, met Capt. Wm. Cunningham, a brother of Mrs. A. I. Mather of this place. Capt. Cunningham is one of the best known and most experienced coast pilots in that section, and is captain of a steamer plying up and down the Shanghai River.

Miss Etta Boyd, of the millinery firm of C. & E. Boyd, after a protracted illness resulting from a severe cold, died Wednesday. Miss Boyd was a native of Ohio, and during her stay in this city commanded the respect of all who knew her. The bereaved sister and brother have the sympathy of many friends in this city.

Mrs. Jennie Turner has been visiting her old home in Warren. Mrs. Turner is the daughter of S. S. Crocker of Pomona, Ga., formerly of Warren. Mrs. Turner's husband, Rev. B. F. Turner, graduates from Newton Theological Seminary next Thursday. He has been appointed missionary to Burmah and will go there with his family.

On the death of her husband, N. D. Clifford, president of Wiley University, Marshall, Texas, Mrs. Corn Knight Clifford was unanimously requested by trustees and students to assume the duties of the presidency of the institution, and has entered on the discharge of these responsibilities. Mrs. Clifford is a daughter of A. J. Knight of East Rumford, and a graduate of the Wesleyan Female College, Kent's Hill.

We take the following from Thursday's Argos:

The friends of Mr. William A. Brooks sympathize with him in the death of his wife, which occurred on Monday. Mr. Brooks is connected with the firm of Brown, Durrell & Co., of Boston and for the past two years has resided with his family on State street in this city. During their residence here they made many friends who deeply mourn this sad breaking up of a pleasant home. The funeral took place at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and the remains were taken to Boston on the 1 o'clock train for burial.

The Belfast papers state that Arthur Priest, son of W. H. Priest of Belfast, formerly of this city, in a fit of temporary insanity, threatened to shoot his parents. He was placed in jail for security. Arthur has long been troubled with severe fits of sickness for which he has had the best of treatment, every means possible being tried. The Belfast Press, in speaking of the matter, says that he lately made a change in his medicine, shortly after which his appetite failed and he became morose and at times violent, but until this occasion his friends had been able to control him. He has eaten nothing for ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Priest have very many friends in this city who will be pained to learn of this sad affair, and hope that the young man may soon recover from his unfortunate malady.

George L. Gilchrist of this city and Miss Annie L. Frost of Belfast were married in that city Wednesday morning. Mr. Gilchrist is a business man, well known in this city, and universally popular. Mrs. Gilchrist was for some time clerk in Fuller & Cobb's and has many friends here. The Belfast Journal thus says:

Miss Annie L. Frost, of this city, was married yesterday morning to Mr. George Gilchrist, of Rockland, Rev. J. A. Savage performing the ceremony. The wedding was private. Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist have gone to Bar Harbor and will later visit St. John, N. B., and then return to Rockland, their future place of residence. Miss Frost was one of our most popular young ladies, and naturally was the recipient of many wedding presents, as well as countless congratulations and good wishes.

Connecticut has revived the ship-building interests of the State by passing laws which impose a tax on the net instead of the gross earnings of vessel property.

Charles Fisk bought a big yoke of oxen last week of Waldoboro parties. One of them girthed 7 feet 8 inches, the other 7 feet 9 inches. They were shipped to Green's Landing for work in the quarries.

A chemical analysis of the powder found on the table and in the bottle near the bed of Oliver Kelley, whose probable suicide we reported last week, showed that it was some arsenical preparation, and since that time Mrs. Coakley, Kelley's boarding mistress, has found a partly used package of Rough on Rats.

Milk is now six cents a quart and will continue so until Sept. 1st when seven cents will again be the tax. Our milkmen show no disposition of adopting the small quart. One of our milkmen said he would not use it unless compelled to, and when compelled he'd carry a small quart in his team and use the large one.

F. S. Sweetland has been very busy of late setting curbing and monuments. He has just completed putting in place a handsome curbing on the Luce lot, Union, and a substantial curbing around the Hamrahan lot, Thomaston. These curbing were cut by the Rockland Granite Co. at their shop near the old depot. They are soon to cut an elaborate monument for the Luce lot, Union.

THE COMET.

The May number of our High School publication has just reached us, and we find it fully up to the standard. It opens with an editorial on Arbor Day, and the graduation program? From it we learn:

That the base ball team has organized and now presents the following nine: McAnulla c., H. Simonton p., Hall s., Nelson 1st b., Larrabee 2d b., F. Simonton 3d b. and captain, Kallioch l. f., Spear c. f., Davies r. f., Packard and Smith substitutes. The boys expect to have a sociable soon, the proceeds to be expended for mask, gloves, etc. J. H. McNamara will probably be engaged to sing.

That the Camden club will soon play a return game here.

That the Seniors are about to eclipse their predecessors by having a graduation ball. The expenses will be about $135 and eighty-five gentlemen have been pledged at $1.50 each, and doubtless many more will attend. We hope the ball will be a grand success.

The legacy of $2000 left by the late Paul R. Hazeltine, of Belfast, to any Maine Orphan Asylum which should exist at his death and $1000 left to the Home for Aged Women in the State, existing at the same time, has not yet been disposed of. There are six claimants among them being the Children's Home and the Home for Aged Women in Belfast and everything indicates a stubborn contest over the will. Mr. Chas. B. Hazeltine, one of the executors, brought the matter in the court in Belfast, last week, the action on the docket being known as Charles B. Hazeltine, et al. in equity vs. Abbie F. Vose et al. The matter goes to the law court for a decision.

Very large, round hats are announced for summer wear.

OUR CIRCULATION.

We print this week 2616 copies of THE COURIER-GAZETTE, which is our regular weekly edition. This is the largest circulation attained by any paper in Knox County, and nearly all of it is in that county and in the neighboring ones of Lincoln, Waldo and Hancock. We invite the most complete investigation of our claim, and will show our edition or our books to anybody who may wish to see.

WIDOW'S ISLAND.

W. H. Glover & Co. have a crew of a dozen men on Widow's Island under Charles Jackson moving the old buildings and getting ready for the erection of the new. Dr. Hitchcock has heard nothing as yet from his supplementary bid for granite piers.

APPLETON PELTS.

E. D. Gushue of Appleton, dealer in pelts, reports sales of fur for the season as follows: Skunk, 1550; fox, 162; mink, 137; coon, 76; muskrat, 875; cat, 80; total, 2580.

Of this number Will Newbert, the Appleton Nimrod, captured: Skunk, 73; fox, 12; mink, 14; coon, 1; rats, 60; total, 160.

ADOPTED THEM.

George W. Drake has a cat and a litter of three kittens, the latter being several weeks old. Mr. Drake has also a little dog. A few days ago the dog took charge of the kittens and would not allow the cat to approach them. Doggy is very watchful and careful of her adopted family, and devoted to their welfare.

TRIED 'EM.

Engineer Spillsbury, who has been in the city in connection with the Doherty quarry tramway, said that wide tires would prove an excellent thing for our roads. He had used them in hauling ore from some of his mines, and knew what they could do. He said that the roads over which he hauled were boggy and swampy. What's the matter with that?

WORKS WELL.

One cable of the tramway at the Doherty quarry is in working order and chips are being removed thereon today. When the other cable is in working order the tramway will have a capacity of 300 tons a day—about 1500 casks—enough to supply from 12 to 15 kilns. Engineer Spillsbury, who has been in the city superintending the work, has returned to New York.

THE SURVEY.

Of the Camden, Rockport and Rockland railroad will be begun this week. Engineer Tripp will be assisted by Frank E. Hull of Warren and C. A. Corliss of Bath. Measures should be taken to have this proposed road pass through the city before the survey is made. Rockland made a mistake on the K. & L. depot, and should be wise enough to avoid another and grosser one.

BUILDING BITS.

R. W. Messer has put on an addition to his new store, Sea street. The frame for F. H. Berry's new house has been hauled to the lot. The work of filling in on the lot of A. C. and Isaac Gay, corner Broadway and Middle street, goes bravely on. Fred Larabee is building himself a snug little home on Maverick Square. Charles W. Perry has bought a lot of land bounded by Pine, Maverick and Spruce streets, and will erect a stable thereon this summer.

PUTTING 'EM ON.

O. P. Hix arrived home Tuesday and left again last night for West Albany, where he oversees the putting on of his patent coupler on a number of cars of the New York Central road. If the coupler in actual service works as well as his friends have every reason to think it will, the N. Y. Central cars will all be provided with them as fast as they can be manufactured. Just bear in mind that they should be manufactured here.

HORSE HAIRS.

M. S. Williams has a big bay horse bought up Liberty way. Here's hoping that a colt race will be one of the features at the Fourth of July trot at Knox Driving Park. John D. Miller bought a big and handsome black mare of John Whalen last week. It is reported that J. R. Farnsworth's fine mare will participate in West Camden races at an early day. Letters from A. F. Gerald, the Fairfield horseman, state that Prince A., once the property of H. S. Moor, is making fast time. The horse is now owned by Mr. Gerald. C. E. Weeks has a young dark bay mare, a good driver, a recent Massachusetts purchase.

STEADY SERVICE.

Route Agent B. I. Weeks of the American Express Co. was in Camden Tuesday, and appointed Frank S. Sherman agent of the company there to succeed E. M. Wood. Judge Wood had been agent for an express company there for a term of 40 years. He commenced with Jerome & Co. in 1847 and closed with the American Co., 1887, and his services have been continuous. On account of an increasing responsibility, a pressure of other duties and a want of rest, he resigned. Mr. Sherman, the new agent, is one of Camden's most promising young men. His father is master of the big ship Frederick Billings.

OPIUM POISONING.

A Dangerous Cough Mixture if Taken in too Large Quantities.

Monday morning a two-year-old daughter of Wesley Lewis drank the contents of a bottle patent cough medicine, and as a result became unconscious. Dr. Hitchcock called and decided that it was a case of opium poisoning, and immediately applied the proper remedies. Atrophine was given hypodermically, and all day Friday and Saturday the child was kept awake by the use of electric battery and by flagellation. At 10 o'clock it was necessary to resort to artificial respiration. The means used produced the desired effect and the child is now in a fair way to recover. Dr. Hitchcock was assisted by Dr. A. C. Heflinger.

STILL AT IT.

And the Circumstances All Indicate the Work of an Incendiary.

Fire was discovered about midnight Friday in the buildings occupied by H. H. Hall & Co. for their wood, coal and hay business, and before water could be got the fire was well under way, the hay, straw and wood which the buildings contained making excellent material for a conflagration, and three buildings, one occupied overhead by H. S. Perry as a sail-loft and below by Mr. Hall for a stable and store-house, and two smaller wood buildings were destroyed. So rapidly did the fire gain headway that Mr. Hall's two horses were burned. Cinders flew in all directions, but as everything was wet the fire was easily kept within bounds. The Berrys showed that they had not disbanded by promptly answering the alarm and doing good work.

The two larger buildings lost were the property of Mrs. Lucy Snow, and were uninsured. It would cost somewhere in the vicinity of $1000 to replace them. Mr. Hall had an insurance of $300 on the horses, which was about the value of the best one of the two, $100 on the smaller building burned, $200 on pressed hay and straw, $500 on wood. He lost the most of his cars, sheds and harnesses on which there was no insurance. Mr. Perry had an insurance of $500 on his sail-loft. He lost everything. All this insurance was with A. J. Erskine. Charles H. Pillsbury, one of Mr. Perry's sailmakers, lost all of his tools. In the loft were stored a great number of sails of various vessels, which were lost. Most all of Capt. I. L. Snow's vessels had sails there, and Mr. Snow had some 300 yards of new duck. Schooner Mabel Hall lost a new mainsail, and schooner Richmond a new and old suit of sails.

Taking into account the several attempts to set fires in this immediate vicinity the general conclusion is that the fire was of incendiary origin.

GRANGERISMS.

Union Pomona Grange met on Saturday with Medonak Valley Grange, Burketville, Appleton, and had a very interesting session. On account of the bad traveling and threatening weather the attendance was not as large as it would have been otherwise. An able address of welcome was given by the W. M. of M. V. Grange. An interesting discussion was held on the question: "Resolved, That farmers' wives are more industrious than the farmers themselves, and that the success of the farm depends more on the economy of the wife than upon the hard labor of the husband;" decided in the affirmative. Orchardng was discussed at some length, and the question laid over to a future meeting. In the evening Worthy Master Smith of Rockland conferred the 5th degree upon ten candidates in due form. Very interesting remarks were made by Bros. Moody, Staples, Stone, Bartlett, Smith, Walter, Keene, Norwood and others on various topics. An interesting paper was read by Sister Sprawl of McLean's Mills. An excellent supper was provided. The next meeting of the Pomona Grange will be with Maple Grange, North Waldoboro, Thursday at 10 a. m., Sept. 1. If stormy one week later. These county meetings are growing more and more popular and beneficial. It is with great pleasure that we are able to announce that Hon. Mortimer Whitehead of Penna., lecturer of the National Grange and the ablest orator in the order, will give a public lecture to farmers and grangers at Union Common, Friday, Aug. 12, at one p. m. and a private lecture to members of the order in the evening. A series of ten lectures will be given by this distinguished gentleman in different parts of the state, due notice of which will be given. F. W. Smith and wife of this city attended Pomona Grange at Burketville Saturday. Apple trees in the country are infested with great numbers of caterpillars. The prospect at present looks favorable for a good hay crop. Rather cold and wet for corn, beans, cucumbers and squashes.

UNFORTUNATE.

And We Fear that Our Lime Manufacturers Will Find It So.

The organization of the Knox County Lime Association, which included all the manufacturers in the county, expires today, and as no measures have been taken to organize for another year it will probably die a natural death. The association has been in operation three years, organizing from year to year, and in that time has greatly benefited our lime business by controlling the amount of shipments. Knox county can furnish a great deal more lime than there is a market for, and the association by controlling the amount shipped has been able to keep the price of lime up to a living figure. It has not been a monopoly in any way, and has not kept its product up to an exorbitant price.

We fear our lime business will suffer somewhat for the lack of similar provision.

TOOK IT.

The owners of the new block to be built on the corner of Main and School streets accepted the offer of Knox Lodge, I. O. O. F., to lease the third story for a hall for a term of years at an annual rental of $300, and the hall plans are now in the hands of the builders. The quarters of the lodge at present are very restricted and a new hall has long been needed. It is proposed to furnish the new hall in a way that shall make it one of the best in the state.

SUSSEX STOCK.

A representative of Elmwood Stock Farm, Montville, Walker & Littlefield proprietors, was in this city the other day, and reported everything lovely. This farm makes a specialty of Sussex stock, and are loud in praise of its many superiorities over other breeds.

CONDEMNED IT.

BIG JOB.

Things Will Boom on Hurricane the Coming Season.

The Hurricane Granite Co. received news this morning that they were awarded yesterday the contract for the new county court house to be erected at Pemberton Square, Boston. The contract is for the northerly section, the plans for the remaining portions of the building not being ready. They will be put in hand next spring and the other sections will probably be constructed of Hurricane stone.

The contract received comprises about one-fourth of the entire building. The building when completed will cover an acre of 65,346 square feet. Its height will be 80 feet and 200 feet to the top of the dome. The amount of stone required for the building will be 190,000 cubic feet, for the section under contract 45,000 feet will be required. The contract received will require a year's time for completion and will furnish employment through the summer to 400 men at least.

Another boom for Knox county.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

John D. Weed, one of the deck-hands of the steamer Mt. Desert, while trucking zinc down the slip this morning, fell forward on the truck striking his face on the zinc, crushing in his nose and lacerating the flesh fearfully. Drs. At the meeting of Rockland Yacht Club Friday evening it was decided to postpone its intended regatta until Saturday, June 25th. It is proposed to offer one or two handsome prizes to insure a large number of contestants, and induce Bar Harbor, Belfast and other flyers to participate, and make the race the event of the summer. To raise the money necessary a paper is being circulated. The boys only ask for $40, and if our people will only draw their wallets for a small amount each the thing can be done and no one feel it. A good regatta this month will enliven things immensely. Give the boys what they want. Two new Bar Harbor yachts will probably try the mettle of our Rockland surf skimmers.

STEAMBOAT SPARKS.—In two weeks, while the B. & B. boats were driven for time, Capt. Ingraham in the Penobscot put in seven trips. One night last week seven steamboats were hovering around Tillson's wharf. The Mary Morgan was detained in Boston last week by finding a defect in a valve, which was replaced by a new one. The steamer Lucy P. Miller left New York for Bangor June 4th, and will leave Bangor for New York about June 11th. She will touch at Rockland, Camden, Belfast, Bucksport and make the trip instead of the Mt. Waldo. Steamer Electa of Bangor, was put on the route between Castine and Belfast June 1st. There are now two steamers and several sailing packet lines between the two places. The Belfast Journal says the business is over done. Steamship Lucy P. Miller, from New York arrived here yesterday, landing freight and passengers at the Atlantic wharf. She sailed for Rockport, Belfast, Bucksport and Bangor immediately returning, she will arrive in Rockland from Bangor and intermediate points about June 11, en route for New York. For passage or freight apply to J. T. Lathrop, agent, care F. A. Thorndike. The Pioneer is at Tillson wharf receiving repairs, having her machinery thoroughly overhauled. The May Field is on the route. The Mary Morgan arrived here Friday night on her way to Bangor, and hauled into the P. B. & M. slip. She is a roomy passenger boat. M. Lord of this city.

CHURCHES.—Rev. J. J. Blair of Newton, Mass., occupied his old pulpit Sunday morning, a large audience being present to listen to his really excellent discourse. The ordinance of baptism was conferred upon two lady candidates at the First Baptist church Sunday evening. There will be no services at the Congregational church Sunday evening, the pastor not being able to officiate by reason of throat difficulty. Rev. Mr. Perkins of Dunstable, Mass., will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday. After next Sunday the Sunday preaching service at the M. E. church will be held at 10:30 a. m. instead of in the afternoon, as has been the custom. The other church services of the day will be held as usual.

OLD LADIES' HOME.

And Where Shall the Money Go? Camden or Rockland?

Thursday afternoon those of our ladies interested in the establishing of a home for aged ladies in this city met in the parlors of the First Baptist church, and officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. John Bird, vice president, Mrs. Isabelle A. Hunt; secretary, Miss N. T. Sleeper; treasurer, Miss Helen S. Lawry. The Camden members were voted leave to withdraw, and a vote was passed dividing the funds. We now have a regularly organized, separate society in this city. The books are in the hands of the treasurer, Miss Lawry, and all subscriptions should be left with her. An adjourned meeting will be held one week from Thursday.

The members of the organization are in somewhat of a dilemma regarding the disposition of a bequest of $300 made by Mrs. Joshua Norwood some time ago to the "Home for Aged Women in Rockland." According to the terms of the bequest it can only be paid to the Rockland organization. Some of the members of that organization desire to give the money to the Camden association, while others favor dividing equally. The Camden people have no legal right to the bequest, but some of the Rockland ladies think that the intention of Mrs. Norwood would be more nearly carried out if the money should be expended in Camden, as the Camden ladies were members of the organization to which to the bequest was made at the time of Mrs. Norwood's death.

SUCCULENT STRAWBERRIES.

Rockland is a great strawberry market. The past week F. A. Thorndike & Co., wholesalers of fruit and produce, put out 7000 baskets of Maryland berries in this city, at prices ranging from 9 to 11 cents a basket. The retailers have closed them out well, selling two baskets for 25 cents, a few old berries selling for 10 cents a basket. The berries have been of fair quality. Long Island berries will arrive this week.

P. M. Studley has purchased of Capt. Caleb Levensaler the old homestead farm of the late Adam Levensaler in the western part of the town. Mr. Studley is digging a cellar on the site of the old cellar, and will build a house thereon.

We hope the report that George S. and William G. Washburn are to return to Thomaston and engage in business at the wharf (so called.) We learn as yet that the contemplated purchase of the Creighton ship yard has not been fully consummated, but a bargain for the same is under advisement.

The Camden and Rockland Water Company are pushing forward their work quite rapidly. They are digging this morning between the Baptist church and Knox House on Main street, and have the pipe laid from near the Edward O'Brien house most of the way on line of trench. Two gangs are at work on the new road to Rockland.

Supervisor O'Brien regrets that an omission was made in the list of the graduates of the graduates of the High School furnished last week. The list was published as written by him, and in order to do justice to all parties concerned we re-publish the article corrected: The class of '87 Thomaston High School received their diplomas from supervisor E. M. O'Brien, Saturday, May 28th, at the close of the morning session in the presence of the school and a small number of visitors. The affair was entirely informal. The following named graduates compose the class: Lizzie S. Levensaler, Carrie W. Morse, Blanche W. Robinson, Stonie W. Tucker, Adele H. Morse, Alice Blunt, Ada C. Libby, L. Blanche Sumner, Laura E. Cleveland, Frank F. Henry, William G. Dunn, Evelyn S. Young.

ROCKPORT.
Capt. J. W. Maguire is very sick.

The iron bridge is receiving a coat of paint. H. L. Shepherd is laying the foundation for a fine residence.

S. E. & H. L. Shepherd have placed upon their store an elaborate sign which calls attention to the Deering Harvesting Machinery.

The rock railroad is being extended to the kiln platforms. The ease with which lime rock is now brought to this place is surprising.

Mrs. G. A. Andrews and Miss Villa Orbeton are in Boston. Miss Orbeton goes to Omaha, Nebraska, to visit Mrs. Spofford Andrews and Augustus Orbeton.

A thorough and much needed, although expensive piece of work, is being done by Second Selectman J. S. Fuller, in widening the street on the west side of the bridge.

Mrs. Capt. G. A. Andrews, who usually accompanies her husband to sea, remains at home for the present to send their children to school. She is keeping house in Mrs. Sidelinger's residence.

Hon. F. E. Richards received last week a very nice thoroughbred Jersey cow four years old, as a present from ex-Gov. Robie. It is to take the place of the one presented him three years ago, which died.

SOMETHING NEW.—For a long time Rockport has felt the need of steamboat communication with the outside world. New York parties have made arrangements to have a thoroughgoing passenger and freight steamer direct from that port, to trade at Rockland, Rockport and intermediate landings to Bangor. The thing is a venture and it is hoped may prove a permanent enterprise. She will land at Carleton & Co.'s wharf, which wharf port she for the boat company. Freight and passenger rates from New York to this port and vice versa are as follows: 15 cents per 100 pounds; 6 cents per cubic foot; passengers, $4, $2 for day and night, and $1 for day for board. The Lucy P. Miller made the first trip coming into our harbor yesterday.

Among the fine monumental work in the Mountain Street cemetery, at Camden, none is more attractive than that recently placed by Achorn Bros. upon the G. F. Burgess lot. In it is combined both gray and red granite. The base is composed of three sections, the lowest being four feet square, unpolished. Then follows the die which is polished, and at each angle of which is a column of red granite supported by a base of the same material. The cap piece. Surmounting the cap piece is a beautiful cross of red granite, symbol of the Knights of the Red Cross. Upon the base of the cap piece are the symbols of Blue Lodge and the whole is very beautiful and unlike any other in the yard. The lot is in a fine location and the work upon it is second to none.

Another vessel of our lime coasting fleet becomes a total loss. In the early part of May schooner Flavia, Capt. Roscoe Thurston, set sail for New York with lime from G. F. Burgess & Son. On May 10th, while off Cape Cod, she encountered heavy weather and sprung a leak sufficiently large to set cargo on fire. The hatches were at once sealed and the vessel headed for Vineyard Haven which port she reached May 11th. G. F. Burgess went to said port to look after the vessel and cargo. When she had been sealed 21 days the fire was still burning and all hope of saving the vessel abandoned. She was then leached and partially stripped, the fire preventing the completion of the work. Her cargo consisted of 1085 barrels lime which was insured. There was no insurance on the vessel which was owned by Capt. Thurston, J. D. Rust and G. F. Burgess, who owned 9-16. Rated value of vessel $1000.

WARREN.

Memorial sermon was delivered Sunday evening of last week by Rev. J. H. Barrows to a full house, assisted by Rev. A. G. Pettigill. It was a fine address and delivered with great power.

First of the season. Two organ grinders appeared on the bridge the other evening and though we did not hear very sweet music from them yet they created quite an excitement with the crowd, they chime and walking up in single file, contributing as they passed, their pennies, until they received between four and five dollars, much to their happiness I presume. Probably they will not forget to call on the bridge at some future day.

We guess the little story in last week's issue under the head of "The Tramp" is a little bit of it was not the first, it was the man that blew the bugle. It was in the days of the Warren Rifle Co. They had come from their parade ground marching over the bridge returning. Capt. Eaton noticing many ladies out there, he gave the order: "Counter march," but the bugle man, so intense on wetting his whistle, did not hear but kept on. Not hearing any music but his own he came to a halt, when looking back the company was across the bridge. Your townsman, Mr. F. A. D. Singh, played the trombone at the same time, and the bugle man was ever after in attendance while the company existed, but now he is waiting for Gabriel's trumpet, having passed away not many years ago.

Monday morning of last week the members of William Payson Post were on hand at their rooms. Committees were sent out to decorate the graves of their comrades, and to erect the head stones, which the government furnished. The majority of the post marched to the New-comb cemetery in the forenoon and performed their usual ceremony. Then returning to their rooms dinner was served. At one the Post returned and marched to the town cemetery then to the McCallum yard where an altar was placed in remembrance of the absent dead. Services under the direction of the commander were performed, assisted by a choir of eleven voices. Mrs. Wakefield presiding at the organ, after which they and the public repaired to the Baptist church, and listened to the address of Rev. Mr. Graham of Waldoboro, Rev. Mr. Barrows and Pettigill assisting in the service and the choir rendering some fine selections.

This passed a day with our people which we hope will long be, not only remembered, but full interest continued for years to come, that the observance may be remembered by the rising generation. The town appropriated $25 towards the expenses and we hope next year they will do the same four-fold.

The steamer had a hole about a foot square torn in the port side just abaft the fore rigging, but proceeded east Thursday. The schooner anchored at City Island. A dispatch in yesterday's papers stated that the schooner would probably be a total loss.

Late letters from New York state that the Monticello is not so badly off as at first reported, and probably will be saved.

For this season he has secured a number of new features and novelties, among whom is Chevalier Ira Paine, whose extraordinary, marvelous and unerring precision with the rifle, pistol or shot gun, have gained for him the title "Master Shot of the World." Mr. Charles W. Fish, who is the sole, undisputed champion of bareback riders, and who has just returned from an extended tour of the Old World, where he has performed before all the principal crowned heads. The Gun Club has ordered two new Blue Rock traps and pigeons, and at its shot, next Thursday, will use three traps....A small club house will be erected at Oak Hill, at once.... The club at their last shoot had their pictures taken in a group by Photographer Crockett. An excellent negative was secured....The South Thomaston Gun Club held a shoot Saturday, Robert Harrington winning at 13. Four of the Rockland club participated.

AT RANDOM.

. The Bar Harbor Record in a somewhat caustic letter takes exceptions to the recent article in THE COURIER-GAZETTE on Camden's attractions for a summer resort. We admire the Record's loyalty to its home, but are somewhat amused at the weakness of its logic in treating Camden's claims as absurd and then attempting to prove that those claims have no foundation. Camden's transcendent attractions are evidently enough to cause the Record some uneasiness or it wouldn't waste so much space and type in endeavoring to refute them. Come up neighbor and look at Camden's many beauties with an unprejudiced eye, and you will go away convinced that nature didn't expend all her wonderful resources on Bar Harbor.

. The Acadian House, Castine, will be opened to the public the 15th. It has been put in splendid order.

FISH AND FISHING.

The southern fishing season is about closed and the vessels arriving home. Thursday the Melissa D. Robbins and Margaret S. Smith arrived in Portland. The Robbins made several fair catches, the last being 100 barrels of mackerel, while the Smith got nothing. There were 180 vessels in the fleet this season, and all are on the homeward route. Their average catch has been 75 barrels of salt and fresh mackerel. Each vessel carries a crew of about 15 men, and to feed all the crews two months costs $15,000. The steamer Novelty has stocked about $5000. She has been one of the successful vessels....The fishing schooner Venus, of Eastport, was in Portland Thursday, and reported that while fishing on Saturday about twenty miles to southward of Monhegan, two of her crew while out in a dory tending their trawls were lost in the fog, and though the vessel cruised all around the vicinity nothing more was seen of them. It is probable some other fishing vessel picked them up. Dense fogs on the Banks off the British Provinces have delayed the work of the American fishing fleet. Mackerel are reported at Shelburne.

THE TRAMP.

The best criterion of the life of a place is the condition of its business pulse. The Tramp recently made a trip to Camden and found the pulse of that enterprising place in excellent condition.

Evidences of new business and new buildings were seen on every hand. The town seems to be growing and prospering in all its business channels; at least that was the conclusion of the Tramp after a saunter up Meganticook stream. C. M.
Barstow, inventor and manufacturer of the famous Barstow heading machine, reported a good run of work. Mr. Bars-ton is a thorough machinist and mechanic and does a great amount of job work in connection with his manufacturing. He recently shipped one of his machines to Delaware parties.

Next adjoining Mr. Barstow's place of business one notices the substantial foundations of the proposed extension of the Knox Woolen Mill. This extension will be 100x40 feet. The building now occupied by the Knox Co. is so narrow that probably the looms will be moved to this new structure.

The extensive establishment of Knowlton Bros., covering both sides of the stream, is always a busy place. This firm has the facilities for doing a business that will give employment to 80 men. When the Tramp visited them they were turning out a number of odd jobs, one of them being an immense derricle for Sullivan parties.

Some distance up the stream at Gould's Mills, so called, a very busy place is found. Here the Camden Woolen Co. is establishing its new mill, under the supervision of Supt. Faunce. The mill will be a wooden building, 100x54 feet, three stories. H. C. Small of Camden is the builder. The old Gould mill will be used for storage purposes. The machinery for the new mill was bought at auction, at a bargain, and has been received and stored. The privilege is a valuable one, the power being among the best in the state.

At the oakum factory old rigging is being chewed up in a very busy way, while at the Alden Anchor Works the sparks of industry fall in frequent showers, and anchors, big and little, but all well made, are being turned out daily.

Three men, father and two sons, by the name of Giles at Falls Village, near Ellsworth, have for some time shown signs of arsenic poisoning. Friday one of the sons died and the others are low and failing. An analysis of the food they have been eating shows the presence of arsenic. It is given as a possible theory that the poison was Paris green which came from the potatoes. The three men lived together during part of the winter and spring and did their own cooking.

The common red clover is better than the large for general purposes. The latter is difficult to cure, makes coarser hay, and is more apt to become musty.

OUR STATE.

Capt. B. W. Morse, one of Bath's wealthiest citizens, is dead.

Boothbay is the latest Maine town to vote for water works. The lesson of the fire there a few months ago was not lost.

The lawyers of Portland, have struck for shorter days, and from June 1
to September 1, will close their offices at 4 p. m.

The body of George Burnham who committed suicide by drowning at Oldtown, May 17, was found in the river at Bangor, Wednesday.

A new cottage, being built at Bar Harbor, by Mr. De Grasse Fox, has shingles ten feet long, seven inches wide and one inch thick at the butt.

The Free Baptist Association announced their annual campmeeting at Ocean Park, Old Orchard would be open
August 1st, to be in session 19 days.
Rev. E. L. Townsend will deliver lectures and Prof. E. Bandy have charge of the musical service.

At the examination at the Castine Normal School Wednesday there was a large attendance. Councillors Lord, Woods, Warren and Trustees Luce, Hinckley, Merrill, Philbrook and Samuel Libby, senator, were present. These exercises were highly creditable and there were interesting class parts that evening.

THE TURF.

The Board of Review of the National Trotting Association

met at Chicago on the 10th

ult. Ira P. Woodbury of Auburn and John F. Haines of Biddeford, two of the best known horsemen in Maine, were severely handled by the board, the former being expelled from the association, and the latter suspended for one year. Woodbury was charged with entering the horse Pickwick, with a record of 2:29 1-2, in the 2.45 class at Haverhill, Mass., in 1882, under the assumed name of Syphon, and again at Norway, in this state, in 1883, in the 2.39 class, entering the same horse. Mr. Haines, who is well known in this city, was charged with entering the bay mare Nellie M. and the bay gelding Frank F. out of their class in Connecticut races in October last. It was ascertained, and there is no evidence to the contrary, that the owners of these horses were not privy to the matters recited. Upon these facts, and after making due allowance for the frank admissions and seemingly earnest promises of respondent Haines, it was ordered, that he be suspended for one year, and that he be required to restore the unlawful winnings of Frank F. at Danbury, and that he be and remain suspended until this requirement has been complied with.

When is that talk of race between the Fairfield stallion Lawrence and the handsome Nelson coming off?
Last year after the ground had frozen,
Nelson having been barefooted all summer and not having been worked, the friends of Lawrence wanted to try Nelson. There seems to be little talk of that sort now.

Col. Richard West, who died recently at Lexington, Ky., had owned and bred many famous horses. The first horse of note owned by him was Almont, the horse that brought fame to Fairwain Farm. He bred Almont Chief, the sire of Almont Gift, 2:27 1-4; Trouble (sire of Lizzie II., 2:23 1-2); Onward, 2:25 1-2; Bidwell's Almont (sire of Annie W., Almont M., Judge Lindsay and Royalmont); Director, 2:17; Jay-ey see,
2:10; Westmont, pacing record 2:13 3-4;
and Emma, pacing record 2:10 1-4.
This is but a partial list of the fast performers that were bred by him, as in all thirty-five with records of 2:30 or better were the product of Edge Hill Farm.
Col. West also owned or controlled at times the stallions Dictator, Robert McGregor and Egbert. Onward is now the property of C. H. Nelson of Waterville. Col. West and Pluto, also of Mr.
Nelson's stud, were bred by Col. West.

The Boston-Bangor packet line, at present comprised of nine vessels, but shortly to be increased to thirteen, now touches at Portland, thus affording Portland merchants the same facilities as Boston. Bangor merchants hope to be able to have the new steamboat that is shortly to go on the route from that city to Rockland, also run to Portland, making daily trips between the two cities.

Queen Kapiolani during her visit to Boston was very much charmed with Miss Gertrude O'Brien, daughter of the mayor, and as a token of remembrance has sent Miss O'Brien a beautiful shell necklace.

A distinct earthquake shock was felt at Jamestown, N. Y., at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The shock lasted only a moment, and seemed like an underground explosion of great severity.
In some portions of the city women ran out of their houses in alarm.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used Bosche's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all Throat and Lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists
to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 8
